Temple Menorah Begins Work on New Sanctuary

A 2-foot time capsule, to be opened in the year 2000, has been buried on the site of a new sanctuary at Temple Menorah, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach.

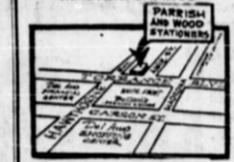

The capsule, which contains the future hopes of members of the congregation, was buried during groundbreaking ceremonies for the new sanctuary. It will be opened in the year 2000, which is the Jewish year 5761.

Presentation of the capsule was made by Howard R. Hornein, and Stuart Dikel, president of the Senior Youth Group, spoke about the hopes of the Temple's young people for the future.

PRINCIPAL speaker at the ceremonies was Rabbi Alfred Gottschalk, dean of the Hebrew Union College. David Caplan, director of Synagogue Activities for the Union of

Musical Tributes Planned

Ted Roberts, minister of education and music of the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church, 24730 Narbonne Ave., has announced the church's music program schedule for the Christmas season.

The Rev. Levi Price, pastor, has invited the public to attend each of these special services.

The youth and adult choirs will join in singing "Do You Hear What I Hear?" at the 11 a.m. service Sunday, Mrs. Del Vaughn will play the organ and Mrs. Oscar Nichols will be pianist.

The beginner and primary choirs will sing several numbers at the Sunday evening service, 7 p.m. The choirs will be directed by Mrs. Oscar Nichols and accompanied by Mrs. Don Crum.

Prior to the service, the junior boys and girls will present a Christmas fantasy for children at 6 p.m. Written by Elizabeth Webster Watson, the fantasy entitled "Gift Wrap, Please" will be directed by Mrs. Hugh Dooley.

Christmas Pageant Planned

Children's Showcase, a music group, will present a nativity pageant at St. James Church Hall, Redondo Beach, Sunday and again Thursday, Dec. 21.

The pageant, directed by Mrs. Richard Marrelli, features a cast of children ages 5 through 13.

Principal players for "The Inn at Bethlehem" are Connie Langton, Emily Donahue, Linda Coons, and Francie Marrelli of Torrance. The role of Benjamin the Shepherd Boy is played by Jerald Pancake of Redondo Beach, who has several minor television appearances to his credit.

OTHER character roles are played by Celeste and Stephanie Johnson, Jessica and Leslie Comeaux, Debora Eckstein, Kathleen Michael, Rose Marie Morgan, and Michael Marrelli.

All the girls are angels or cherubs in other scenes. Additional angels are Mary Ann Birngarden, Jeannette Hazel, Diane Lillo, and Cathy Paul, all of Torrance.

Tiny singing cherubs, ages 5 and 6, include Chris Amberg of Redondo and Richard Coons, Meg Ann Hawley, Virginia Pfaff, and Maureen Reidy of Torrance.

Mrs. Lee Norville will be piano accompanist assisted by teenagers Patty Jarrell, flutist; Eric Lillo, trumpeter; and Karen Miller, bells.

Stage crew members are Jim Marrelli and Roger Pan-
